STATIONS CONTACT DETAILS

Members from the stations area would be aware of the many RTBU delegates and activists that represent you on a day to day basis. At recent meetings members have identified the need to re-advertise your senior stations delegates and their contact details.

Members who were elected to represent you through the Australian Electoral Commission at the last union election are listed below. These representatives work with the many workplace delegates and activists that represent your interest and should be contacted in the event that your workplace delegate is unavailable.
